Ch. 31) Lastly, Job recalls the past (Chapter 29) and laments the lack of answers while looking at the present suffering (Chapter 30). And in this chapter he claims his innocence

"Let me be weighed in a just balance, and let God know my (.....)!"

Ch. 32) Why was Elihu angry with Job and his three friends?

"He burned with anger at Job because he (.....) himself rather than God. He burned with anger also at Job's three friends because they had found no answer, although they had declared Job to be (.....)."

Ch. 33) Unlike the three friends, what did Elihu say to Job (vv. 19-32)?

- 1) Elihu is honest and speaks only the truth.
- 2) God corrects people's mistakes even if it means causing pain to their bodies.
- 3) Job's claim that he suffers despite his righteousness is false.
- 4) Being an adult does not mean being wise and being an old man does not mean being just.

Ch. 34) Who said the following?

"When he is quiet, who can condemn? When he hides his face, who can behold him, whether it be a nation or a man?"
